

2019-2020

Teacher Participation Agreement

At The Education Partnership, we believe in the equitable and resourceful distribution of supplies and in serving one another with respect and integrity. All guests on premises are expected to act in accordance with these values.

By accepting product from The Education Partnership, you agree to the following:

- All product received must be used solely by teacher and their students in their school. The Education Partnership may verify that supplies received are being used as intended and assess their impact on student outcomes.
- Items from TEP may not be returned, exchanged, sold, or bartered.
- Teachers are responsible for selecting products appropriate for their students.
- Teachers must observe posted limits for products to ensure adequate supplies for others. Items designated as "no limit" should be restricted to quantities that will meet the needs of their individual school.

Media Release: Photographs, film footage, and/or testimonials may be taken during your program involvement. By signing this release, you authorize TEP or its assigns to publish, copyright, and lawfully use these.

Liability Release: By signing below, you agree to unconditionally release, hold harmless, and indemnify TEP and its representatives from any and all liabilities and claims, for you and all minors under your care, of whatever kind or nature arising out of or relating to your presence on TEP property.

I have read the above and agree to all stated terms and conditions. I understand that I am willingly releasing certain legal rights I may have by signing this agreement. I understand that if I do not comply with the above, I may be asked to leave the premises and/or be ineligible for future participation in TEP's programs.